Bring It campaign launch

Nelson City Council and 19 cafes across the city have launched an initiative to reduce the number of coffee cups going to landfill.

From Thursday, 25 July 2024, the participating cafes are offering a discount of between 30c and $1 if customers bring their own clean, reusable coffee cup.

"We can all make a contribution to reducing waste going to landfill. This initiative is one of many that Council, business and individuals can do to lessen our impact on the environment," says Nelson Mayor Nick Smith.

It's estimated that 295 million beverage cups

(including coffee cups) are disposed of every year in New Zealand. Although coffee cups appear to be cardboard, they're lined with plastic, meaning they cannot be recycled. Consumers bringing their own cups is an easy and effective way to reduce the number of single-use cups heading to landfill each year.

"The Bring It campaign is part of a larger discussion we're having about how to reduce or even avoid waste," says Nelson City Council

Waste Minimisation Adviser Karen Lee.

"Nelson and Tasman Councils are reviewing our joint waste plan. It's an opportunity to not just consider how we manage waste but how we reduce it, or even avoid creating it in the first place. Waste is everyone's problem, and we all have a role to play in the solution. The little things we can all do will, together, make a big difference."

Community Leisure Management Ltd selected to manage Saxton Field Facilities

Following a comprehensive tender process, Community Leisure Management Ltd (CLM) has been jointly chosen by Nelson City Council and Tasman District Council to manage Saxton Field Facilities.

The new contract, which began on Monday 29 July 2024, is a three-year agreement with an option to extend for an additional three years.

Saxton Field is where the regional community comes together for sport and recreation. The facilities, jointly managed by Nelson City Council and Tasman District Council, include a collection of high-quality venues that cater for regional sport and recreation activities along with national and international events.

Nelson City Council Group Manager Community Services, Andrew White says CLM's proposal stood out due to its focus on maximising the use of the facilities for the community.

"CLM is focused on reducing costs for ratepayers and has shown a strong commitment to the community through providing diverse activities and opportunities right across the country. CLM currently manages a portfolio of Nelson City Council's facilities including Trafalgar Centre, Riverside Pool, Nayland Pool and local halls so we know they have a high standard of delivery."

CLM CEO Craig Carter highlighted CLM's longstanding commitment to the region and is looking forward to collaborating with all key stakeholders to deliver exceptional services and experiences that resonate with the entire region.

"With over 20 years of managing community facilities in the Nelson/Tasman area, we are excited to bring our expertise and community engagement to Saxton Stadium. Our local team is deeply passionate about the region and dedicated to delivering programmes and services that make a difference."

Nelson City Council and Tasman District Council would like to extend their thanks to Sport Tasman for its dedication and hard work managing the Saxton Field Facilities over the last 14 years. Sport Tasman has played a significant role in the success of these facilities, and we appreciate their contribution.

Grampians Slip

Contractors are currently working across two slip sites on the Grampians. Slip 14: Tukuka Street and Slip 12: Allan Street.

The work on Slip 14: Tukuka Street is on part of the Grampians Lower Traverse and requires the entrance closure from Tukuka Street and Oakes Reserve. Access is available outside of work hours and weekends.

Slip 12: Work will take place between the Grampians and private properties on Allan Street. There will be increased activity in this area with trucks using Hampden Street to access the site. There will be no track closures for this part of the project.
